9/29/2010 2224 hrs. Ricky's Bar – 236 Main St. – Assault Report: The complainant advised that he was beat up by “biker guys” that went into Ricky's bar. The assault itself actually occurred in the 300 blk of Main St. The complainant claims that he had just left Ivanhoe's bar and got onto his motorcycle. He claimed that when he reached the 300 blk of Main St, his pathway was clocked by two “biker” buys in the street. The complainant was unable to pass so he claims he got off his motorcycle and removed his helmet to tell the biker guys he did not want to fight them. The complainant states that at this time he was hit twice by one of the suspects and another one stepped on and broke his prescription glasses. He states the suspects then walked into Ricky's. Even though the complainant could not provide a good description of the offenders, investigating officers were able to locate them.

The officers located several parties outside of Ricky's. A witness advised that the complainant got on his “crotch rocket” outside of Ivanhoe's and swung around in the middle of the street to head back south. The witness stated that the complainant almost struck 3 parties who were crossing the street. He stated words were exchanged between the pedestrians and the reckless driving crotch rocket driver (the complainant).

Another individual advised that he was one of the parties that was nearly struck by the motorcycle. This party stated he called the motorcycle driver an “asshole” at which point the driver (complainant) pulled over and got off his bike. The party states that the complainant took off his helmet and aggressively approached him. The party felt that he was about to be assaulted so he punched the driver once in the face to protect himself. This individual advised the officers that he was afraid for himself and believed he was about to be assaulted.

The officers spoke with two other individuals, one of whom was walking with the above mentioned party and one that was standing outside of Ricky's when the incident occurred. Both indicated that the motorcycle rider was operating in a reckless manner and nearly struck individuals crossing the street. One of the witnesses did observe the motorcycle driver get punched once after he got off his motorcycle, removed his helmet and aggressively approach the persons he almost struck. No arrests were made as no one could verify the complainant's version. The incident did occur outside and involved patrons of both Ivanhoe's and Ricky's bar. The actual incident itself is not related to the operation of either licensed premise. 10-56262
