Mr. Kelly Hansen appeared and informed committee members he is not planning on making any changes. He stated that he has no card reader, but he will card anyone who he does not know or feels unsure about. He stated he has 12 years of experience and he will be leasing the building. There will be no live music and he is hoping to keep the same crowd that currently frequents the tavern.

There was very little discussion regarding the continuing problems at Wharf 209. The committee thinks these problems will resolve themselves in the next few weeks as the outdoor music has now stopped for this year.

Also mentioned by Sgt. Rivers was King Daddies II, 1300 Sixteenth Street and El Coterro (which I believe is now R&V Night Club) of shots fired. The investigation did not turn up anything, but he will keep an eye on these places to see if more problems start to arise. Curmudgeon's Pub was also mentioned as to keep a watch on crowds at their establishment.
