

Ordinance 12-12

To repeal Sections 22-891 through 22-910, of the Municipal Code of the City of Racine, Wisconsin relating to Secondhand Dealers and Pawnbrokers licenses.

The Common Council of the City of Racine, Wisconsin, do ordain as follows:

Part 1: Repeal and recreate Sec. 22-891 – Statutory definitions adopted, to read as follows:

Sec. 22-891 – Pawnbrokers and secondhand article and jewelry dealers.

Wis. Stats. § 134.71 is hereby adopted and, by reference, made a part of this chapter with the same force and effect as though fully set out herein notwithstanding the below subsections. Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance shall constitute a violation of this chapter, punishable according to the penalties set forth in Sec. 22-892, Racine Municipal Code.

(1) Purpose.

(a) The City finds that a paper-based system of tracking and recording pawnbroker and secondhand dealer sales and purchases is technologically outdated, inefficient and environmentally irresponsible. This Section implements and establishes the required use of an electronic reporting system to record transactions by pawnbrokers and secondhand article and jewelry dealers.

(b) To help the police department decrease and stabilize costs associated with the regulation of pawnbrokers and secondhand article and jewelry dealers, and better facilitate the identification of criminal activities in this industry through the timely collection and sharing of transactional information, this Section also implements and establishes the required use of the North Eastern Wisconsin Property Reporting System (NEWPRS).

(c) The City recognizes that pawnbrokers and secondhand article and jewelry dealers engage in legitimate business transactions authorized by state law. However, the City finds that these services provide individuals with an opportunity to potentially transfer stolen property. The City also finds that consumer protection regulation is warranted in transactions of this nature. The purpose of the City's regulation of pawnbrokers and secondhand article and jewelry dealers is to prevent their services from being used to facilitate the commission of crimes and to assure compliance with basic consumer protection standards, thereby protecting the public health, safety and general welfare of citizens, pursuant to the authority granted by Wis. Stat. § 134.71

(c) Records. For each transaction of purchase, receipt or exchange of any secondhand article or secondhand jewelry from a customer, a pawnbroker, secondhand article dealer or secondhand jewelry dealer, it shall be the duty of every license holder to keep a record of all articles and jewelry purchased, received, or exchanged by her/him and it is required that a detailed description be obtained of all property purchased. Said description shall contain such information as to identify said property correctly; and shall include type of property, serial number, model number, color description and purchase price of said property. During this time, the records must at all reasonable times be open to inspection by the Police Department. Notwithstanding public records laws under Wis. Stats. §§ 19.21-.39, a law enforcement agency receiving these records may disclose the information contained therein only to another law enforcement agency.

11. The pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer must display a sign of sufficient size in a conspicuous place on the premises, which informs all patrons that all transactions are reported daily to the police department.

Pawnbrokers and secondhand article and jewelry dealers must provide to the Police Department all required information pursuant to State Statute, by transmitting it from their computer to the North Eastern Wisconsin Property Reporting System (NEWPRS), the web server designated by the Green Bay Police Department. All required records must be transmitted completely and accurately after the close of business each day in accordance with standards and procedures established by the police department using procedures that address security concerns of the pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer and the police department.

2. If a pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer is unable to successfully transmit the required reports by modem, the pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer must provide the police department with printed copies of all reportable transactions by 12:00 noon the next business day.

3. If the problem is determined to be in the pawnbroker's or secondhand article and jewelry dealer's system and is not corrected by the close of the first business day following the failure, the pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer must provide the required reports as detailed in State Statute, and shall be charged a daily reporting failure fee of $10.00 until the error is corrected; or, if the problem is determined to be outside the pawnbroker's or secondhand article and jewelry dealer's system, the pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer must provide the required reports pursuant to State Statute and resubmit all such transactions via modem when the error is corrected.

4. Regardless of the cause or origin of the technical problems that prevented the pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer from uploading the reportable transactions, upon correction of the problem, the pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer shall transmit every reportable transaction from every business day the problem has existed.

5. The provisions of this section notwithstanding, the police department may, upon presentation of extenuating circumstances, delay the implementation of the daily reporting penalty.

6. Subsection (d) shall not apply to businesses that did not have 200 reportable transactions in the past calendar year. However, any such pawnbroker or secondhand article and jewelry dealer must follow the daily reporting procedure for each reportable transaction by submitting a written transaction form approved by the police department to the department on the business day following the date of the reportable transaction.

(e) Holding period.

Except as provided in subsection (e)(5), any secondhand article or secondhand jewelry purchased or received by a pawnbroker shall be kept on the pawnbroker's premises or other place for safekeeping for not less than thirty (30) days after the date of purchase or receipt, unless the person known by the pawnbroker to be the lawful owner of the secondhand article or secondhand jewelry recovers it.

4. During the period specified in subsection (e)(1), (e)(2), or (e)(3), the secondhand article or secondhand jewelry shall be held separate and apart and may not be altered in any manner. The secondhand article dealer or secondhand jewelry dealer shall permit any law enforcement officer to inspect the secondhand article or secondhand jewelry during this period. Within twenty-four (24) hours after a written request of a law enforcement officer during this period, a secondhand article dealer or secondhand jewelry dealer shall make available for inspection any secondhand article or secondhand jewelry which is kept off the premises for safekeeping. Any law enforcement officer who has reason to believe any secondhand article or secondhand jewelry was not sold or exchanged by the lawful owner may direct a secondhand article dealer or secondhand jewelry dealer to hold that secondhand article or secondhand jewelry for such reasonable length of time as the law enforcement officer considers necessary to identify it.
