

Department of Police

730 Center Street
Racine, WI 53404-1186
(262) 635-7700

MEMORANDUM

TO: Public Safety & Licensing Committee

Date: December 29, 2024

FROM: Lt. Sarah Zupke, Police Liaison

Under Report No: n/a

Subject: Calls to Licensed Premises from 11/2/2024 to 12/29/2024 (Meeting 12/30/2024)

Saturday, November 2, 2024

Marci's on Main - 236 Main Street - Civil Trouble - Officers were dispatched to the mentioned bar for a possible assault. Upon arrival they made contact with a female who stated another female slapped her in the face. Officers were unable to locate the other parties. This is an open investigation.

24-047114

Received @ 0029 Hours

Arrived @ 0033 Hours

Double Vision-3101 Douglas Avenue-Civil Trouble-Officers were dispatched to the area of Douglas Avenue and Carlton Avenue to speak with a bar customer reporting an employee of the bar attacked him. No injuries were reported. Responding officers documented providing the complainant with advice.

24-047126

Call Received: 02:23 Dispatched: 02:28 Arrived: 02:30

Honors Bar-1330 Washington Avenue-Assault-A female complainant called police on 11/2/24 to report that on 10/31/24 while at the bar she was assaulted by her child's father. When the officer made contact with the female, she advised her child's father approached her and bumped her chair. They then got into a verbal argument and the male threw his alcoholic beverage at her. While doing so, the glass the drink was in, rubbed her head. There is video of the incident which the responding officer was able to review. This was assigned for follow up however the victim no longer wishes to pursue the matter criminally and intends to resolved the situation with her child's father on her own.

24-047177

Call Received: 13:18 Dispatched: 13:23 Arrived: 13:27

Roger's Bar-1843 N. Wisconsin Street-Civil Trouble-The owner called and reported a male party was going to come behind the bar and take money out of the tip jar due to being mischarged and was getting disruptive. A description of the male party was provided along with his name. Just prior to officers being dispatched, the owner called back and advised the male party had left in a vehicle however it was unknown if he was still in the area. Upon arrival officers made contact with the owner who advised the male party was upset about a bill from the previous week. Despite the owner attempting to explain the charges to the male, he became upset and started slamming his hands on the bar and threatening to take money from the tip jar. Once he became aware the owner called police, the male left the bar. A bar license check and a bartender's license check were completed and valid.

24-047260

Call Received: 23:43 Dispatched: 23:46 Arrived: 23:50

Sunday, November 3, 2024

Pub on Wisconsin-525 Wisconsin Avenue-Welfare Check-An employee called to report a male inside the bar was saying he might get jumped by some people outside of the bar. The male went outside and the bartender did not see anything happen however asked that the male be checked on. A description of the male was provided. When officers arrived they checked the area but did not locate the male party. 24-047276

Call Received: 01:35 Dispatched: 01:41 Arrived: 01:43

Rhino Bar-1659 N. Main Street-Rescue Run-Officers were dispatched for a report of a unconscious female in a vehicle with information that she was possibly given roofies. Additional information provided was that she was in a vehicle in front of the bar and had consumed both beer and marijuana. When officers arrived they located the female who was not conscious but breathing. She was extremely intoxicated and transported by rescue. 24-047375

Call Received: 23:45 Dispatched: 23:46 Arrived: 23:47

Wednesday, November 6, 2024

Double Vision- 3101 Douglas Avenue- An officer self initiated a call for service to provide extra attention to the bar. No issues were documented. 24-047649

Call Received: 00:29 Dispatched: 00:29 Arrived: 00:29

Monday, November 11, 2024

The Void -213 Sixth Street - Unwanted Party - Officers were dispatched to an unwanted party. Upon officers arrival they made contact with the party and he left with no issues. 24-048454

Received @ 2031 Hours

Arrived @ 2038 Hours

Marcis on Main - 236 Main Street - Intoxicated Adult - Bartender called in about an intoxicated adult trying to drive. Upon officers arrival they contact with the adult and transported him home with no issues. 24-048458

Received @ 2112 Hours

Arrived @ 2117 Hours

Tuesday, November 12, 2024

Kayla's Bar-2054 Lathrop Avenue-Civil Trouble-A female complainant called police to report her ex-boyfriend slashed her tires. The female advised she was at the bar with some friends when her ex-boyfriend stopped by uninvited. The female stated the male was acting unusual and then asked her for some money. When she gave the male some money, the female reported he left however then began sending her harassing and verbally abusive text messages. When she walked out to her vehicle which was parked in the bar's parking lot, the female discovered her tire was flat. The bar owner was able to access video of the incident which was reviewed by responding officers. Enough evidence was recovered to complete a warrant recommendation for the male party. 24-048593

Call Received: 22:30 Dispatched: 23:21 Arrived: 23:23

Kayla's Bar-2054 Lathrop Avenue-Tavern Check-Officers were dispatched to a civil trouble at the bar involving a female patron's ex-boyfriend deflating a tire of her vehicle which was parked in the parking lot. This is documented under 24-48593. After handling that call for service a license premise check was completed at the bar. The bar license and the bartender's license were checked and valid. 24-048610

Call Received: 23:57 Dispatched: 23:57 Arrived: 23:57

Wednesday, November 13, 2024

The Nash-522 Sixth Street-Extra Attention-An officer self initiated a call for service to provide extra attention to the establishment. No issues, concerns, or violations were documented. 24-048618

Call Received: 01:33 Dispatched: 01:33 Arrived: 01:33

Thursday, November 14, 2024

Double Vision-3101 Douglas Avenue-Extra Attention- An officer self initiated a call for service to provide extra attention to the bar. No issues were documented. 24-048775

Call Received: 00:36 Dispatched: 00:36 Arrived: 00:36

Friday, November 15, 2024

Double Vision-3101 Douglas Avenue-Extra Attention-An officer self initiated a call for service to provide extra attention to the bar. No violations were documented. 24-049061

Call Received: 22:44 Dispatched: 22:44 Arrived: 22:44

In addition to the above reported incidents, there may be discussion regarding other recent incidents occurring in or around other licensed premises within the City of Racine or updates from previous reports, as reported by the police department.

Sunday, November 17, 2024

Roger's Bar-1843 N. Wisconsin Street-Dispatch received a call from a male party screaming "get out of the bar" followed by a threat to choke someone. The dispatcher attempted to ask questions however the male party was not answering and then all they were able to hear was a male and female talking. Upon arrival, officers made contact with the bar owner who reported no issues. Officers stood by until the crowd left. The bar license was checked and is valid. 24-049206

Call Received: 02:30 Dispatched: 02:32 Arrived: 02:33

The Void-213 Sixth Street-Unwanted Party-The bartender called police to report that a male party who was refusing to leave keeps coming back into the establishment. The complainant provided a description of the male and advised he is being aggressive and stated he is standing in the doorway mocking her. Additional information provided was that the male party is now outside of the bar and the bartender was able to lock the door. When officers arrived in the area, the male party had left The Void and was located in front of Pub on Wisconsin. 24-049317

Call Received: 21:38 Dispatched: 21:41 Arrived: 21:43

Tuesday, November 19, 2024

Honors-1330 Washington Avenue-Unwanted Party-A named complainant (bartender) advised a female bar patron's boyfriend came into the bar and tried to physically pick her up and take her out of the bar. At the time of the call, the female was in the back of the establishment with staff and away from the male. When officers arrived they spoke with the female party who advised her child's father came into the bar and attempted to physically remove her from the bar. The complainant who was working at the time of the incident advised the male came into the bar and began arguing with the female for being out at the bar. He then picked her up and physically attempted to remove her from the bar in front of several patrons. This incident was captured on video which officers were able to review. Phone contact was made with the male who admitted to physically attempting to remove the female from the bar however denied it being more than that. A warrant recommendation was submitted for the involved male party. 24-049639

Call Received: 22:36 Dispatched: 22:39 Arrived: 22:40

Sunday, November 24, 2024

Roger's Bar-1843 N. Wisconsin Street-Unwanted Party-The bartender called to report a female party who was refusing to leave and being verbally aggressive. When officers arrived, the female left upon request. 24-050203

Call Received: 00:23 Dispatched: 00:25 Arrived: 00:26

Roger's Bar-1843 N. Wisconsin Street-Tavern Check-Officers were dispatched to the bar for an unwanted party. Upon arrival contact was made with the bartender who advised a female party who had been refusing to leave was currently in the restroom. When she exited, the female was advised by officers she was no longer wanted in the establishment and was escorted out of the building. A check of the bar license as well as the bartender's license was completed. Both were valid. 24-050206

Call Received: 00:39 Dispatched: 00:39 Arrived: 00:39

Saturday, November 30, 2024

Michelle's-1863 Taylor Avenue-Fight-An unnamed caller reported people fighting and asked that officers be sent. Upon arrival officers checked the area however no one was located and it was advised the problem party had left prior to arrival. Contact was made with the bar owner who advised the incident started outside not inside the bar. 24-050916

Call Received: 01:57 Dispatched: 01:59 Arrived: 02:00

Tuesday, December 3, 2024

The Void-213 Sixth Street-Unwanted Party-The owner called to report an unruly patron who was refusing to leave and provided a description of the male party. Additional information provided was that the intoxicated male had previously been kicked out of the bar two hours ago and had also been kicked out of Blue Rock and Pub on Wisconsin as well. Upon arrival, officers were advised the male party had already left however had been kicked out of numerous bars in the area due to his behavior. 24-051387

Call Received: 21:19 Dispatched: 21:21 Arrived: 21:24

Wednesday, December 4, 2024

Pub on Wisconsin-525 Wisconsin Avenue-Unwanted Party-A named complainant called to report a male party who was refusing to leave. Dispatch documented they could hear a male yelling and the complainant advised the male was now outside yelling. At the same time officers were dispatched to the call, the complainant advised the male had left and requested the call for service be canceled. 24-051569

Call Received: 21:55 Dispatched: 21:57 Arrived: 21:58

Sunday, December 8, 2024

Reefpoint Marina-2 Christopher Columbus Causeway-Unwanted Party-The manager contacted police to report a male party who was currently in the business also in the business the day before was making uncomfortable comments to employees. The manager further reported the male party had to be asked to stop wandering around and talking to customers. They had not yet asked him to leave however wanted him gone due to making everyone uncomfortable. A description of the male party was provided and responding officers were able to locate him. The male party was identified and trespassed from the business. 24-052045

Call Received: 18:05 Dispatched: 18:09 Arrived: 18:09

In addition to the above reported incidents, there may be discussion regarding other recent incidents occurring in or around other licensed premises within the City of Racine or updates from previous reports, as reported by the police department.

Tuesday, December 10, 2024

Honor Bar-1330 Washington Avenue-Civil Trouble-The bartender called to report a male party was involved in a fight and is bleeding from the mouth. The other male party involved who struck him was reported to have left the scene. The suspects were described as three males and the bartender reported there was camera footage of the incident. When officers arrived, contact was made with the injured male party. He advised he was involved in a dispute with the other males at the bar. He then described getting upset, slamming down a chair and being punched by a male party. The injured male advised officers he did not want to pursue this matter criminally and that it was all a misunderstanding. The bartender advised the male party had left his belongings near a certain game machine and then went outside. When he left several other males walked in and used one of the other machines. When the male came back inside, he accused the men of stealing his belongings not realizing they were playing at a different machine than the one where he had left his belongings. Even after being separated by bar staff, the male continued to pick up a chair and loudly put it down causing one of the men from the group to get upset and punch him. The other involved parties had left the bar prior to police arrival. The bar license and the bartender's license were checked and valid.

24-052229

Call Received: 01:06 Dispatched: 01:08 Arrived: 01:11

Wednesday, December 11, 2024

Rhino Bar-1659 N. Main Street-Civil Trouble-An unnamed complainant called to report a male getting aggressive with bar patrons. Dispatch documented there was a lot of yelling going on and the complainant was not answering questions just stating she had video of a male. A description of the male was provided and the caller stated he is friends with the bartender. When officers arrived, they observed a male matching the description provided sitting at the bar. In speaking with the bartender, it was learned the male had a verbal argument with a female patron and became verbally aggressive with her. The bartender advised she wanted the male and female involved to leave the bar due to the disturbance they had caused. The male exited the bar upon request however remained outside pacing and frustrated. Officers were able to determine he had an open criminal case and rules prohibiting him from consuming alcohol. The bartender confirmed the male had been drinking and officers were able to smell the odor of intoxicants emanating from him. He was arrested without further incident.

24-052356

Call Received: 00:23 Dispatched: 00:25 Arrived: 00:25

Thursday, December 12, 2024

Kayla's Bar-2054 Lathrop Avenue-Suspicious Circumstances-The manager called to report two people inside the bar who he thought were trying to rob the bar. He further reported the suspects were trying to break into the machines. When officers arrived, both the front door and the back door were secure and there were no signs of forced entry. Officers cleared the building and determined no one was inside, it was balloons the manager was seeing.

24-052522

Call Received: 05:26 Dispatched: 05:28 Arrived: 05:31

Saturday, December 14, 2024

Pub on Wisconsin-525 Wisconsin Avenue-Civil Trouble- The bartender called to report a group of girls running out of the bar possibly fighting and provided a description of one of the main females involved. When officers arrived, they observed several females creating a disturbance outside of the bar on the sidewalk. A female identified as a primary aggressor was issued a citation. The bar license and the bartender's license were checked and valid.

24-052744

Call Received: 00:54 Dispatched: 00:56 Arrived: 00:57

Pepi's Deli-618 Sixth Street-Civil Trouble-The owner called to report that a male party was yelling at her husband for talking to his children and threatened to blow his head off. Her husband and the male party went outside and the yelling continued. Responding officers were able to determine this started over the male's dog defecating in front of the business and the owners attempting to identify who allowed it to happen and have them clean it up. A short time later after the mess had been cleaned up, the male came into the business and began threatening the owner. The male was issued a citation.

24-052780

Call Received: 11:25 Dispatched: 11:27 Arrived: 11:28

Coasters-1301 N. Main Street-Intoxicated Adult-A refused complainant called to report their vehicle which was being operated by a female party pulled into the establishment's parking lot and the female stumbled into the bar. The complainant was concerned due to the female driving and her condition. When officers arrived, the vehicle was not located in the parking lot.

24-052830

Call Received: 19:33 Dispatched: 20:11 Arrived: 20:14

Sunday, December 15, 2024

Double Vision-3101 Douglas Avenue-An officer self initiated a call for service to provide extra attention to the bar. No violations were documented.

24-052852

Call Received: 00:14 Dispatched: 00:14 Arrived: 00:14

Corner Kick Pub-1301 Washington Avenue-Civil Trouble- An employee called to report a fight and followed up by saying that the group of people involved was dispersing and leaving. Dispatch advised there was still loud background noise and a lot of yelling inside the establishment. The employee stated that the involved parties were all male, everyone was outside, and they were not wanted in the area. When officers arrived, people were going to their vehicles and starting to leave. A short time later, officers were dispatched to the hospital for an individual being treated for injuries related to the fight. Offices were able to view video of the incident and determine the injured male party got into a verbal argument with another male party and then a third male party struck him causing the injury. This is currently an open investigation.

24-052857

Call Received: 02:03 Dispatched: 02:04 Arrived: 02:05

In addition to the above reported incidents, there may be discussion regarding other recent incidents occurring in or around other licensed premises within the City of Racine or updates from previous reports, as reported by the police department.

Rogers-1843 N. Wisconsin Street-Assault-A female called police to report that while at the bar drinking with her female friend, her ex-boyfriend and father of her children came into the bar with another male and they all began interacting. Initially the interaction was cordial however the female reported the male getting closer to her and she did not like it so she left the bar. Due to her friend still being at the bar, the female stated she returned however she and the male got into a verbal altercation outside of the bar which turned physical. When the female attempted to get in her vehicle and drive away, the male repeatedly struck her and caused damage to the interior of the vehicle before walking away. Contact was made with the bartender who advised both the verbal and physical altercation took place outside of the bar however assisted officers by providing access to the cameras. The male party was later located at a private residence and taken into custody. 24-052858

Call Received: 02:06 Dispatched: 02:11 Arrived: 02:16

Thursday, December 19, 2024

The Void-213 Sixth Street-Unwanted Party-The bar owner called to report a male party who refused to the establishment. It was further reported the male party was being aggressive towards other people in the bar. When officers arrived, they assisted bar staff in locating the unwanted male's phone and he left upon request. The bar license was checked and valid. 24-053397

Call Received: 00:32 Dispatched: 00:35 Arrived: 00:36

Sunday, December 22, 2024

Rogers-1843 N. Wisconsin Street-Ordinance Violation-A refused complainant advised there were several people inside the bar smoking cigarettes. When officers arrived, they did not observe anyone smoking. Contact was made with the bartender who was advised of the complaint and denied anyone smoking. No other violations were observed. The bar license and the bartender's license were checked and valid. 24-053821

Call Received: 00:14 Dispatched: 00:24 Arrived: 00:26

Duo Bar and Grill-1102 Mound Avenue-Suspicious Circumstances-While on routine patrol, an officer heard loud music coming from inside the (shut down) bar. There were also several vehicles observed parked on Liberty Street and Mound Avenue (more than normal from people living in the area). Upon observation, the lights outside of the bar were off, the bar's sign was off, and the windows were covered however you could hear loud music coming from inside. Officers made contact and spoke with an individual who advised he was hosting an event, a Christmas party, for his employees at Roots Residential. The establishment was being used as an event hall and no alcohol was being served or sold. The male further advised responding officers he was involved with the city to be allowed to run the place for events with no alcohol being served or sold. The male was advised of parking issues outside which were interfering with traffic and vehicles parked too close to the curb. The male stated he would have his employees move their vehicles. 24-053823

Call Received: 00:36 Dispatched: 00:36 Arrived: 00:36

Sleepy's Lounge-1641 Douglas Avenue-Civil Trouble-a unnamed female complainant called to report that she was at the bar and had just been jumped. A male's voice in the background could be heard telling her to get off the phone. When dispatch called back, there was no answer. When officers arrived, contact was made with the bartender who advised nothing was going on. 24-053912

Call Received: 22:02 Dispatched: 22:03 Arrived: 22:06

Wednesday, December 25, 2024

Documented Under 24-54139 this is a duplicate call. 24-054140

Pub on Wisconsin-525 Wisconsin Avenue-Fight-Reported as 15-20 people fighting in the street in front of Kewpees described as being armed with glass bottles. Multiple calls were received and the involved parties were described as being males and females. A named complainant advised she was going to start locking the doors and it appeared the fight was breaking up. When officers arrived, they observed a few parties yelling and arguing with one another in the middle of the street. When officers activated their emergency lights (red/blue) the crowd dispersed, some leaving on foot and others going into the bar. Contact was made with some unidentified individuals outside who advised that the group fighting was previously inside the bar. A check was completed of the bar license as well as the bartender's license both of which were valid. At 01:03 hours officers were called back for a female party causing issues who was in front of the bar's door. The female party was not being physical however being verbal with people while looking for a phone. When officers arrived, the female party got into a vehicle and left. At 01:24 hours officers again went to the bar for a report of a female (believed to be the same female) sitting in a vehicle outside of the bar who had been involved in the initial fight. The bartender requested that she be asked to leave. It was then reported that the female was starting issues. A responding officer advised the unwanted female had left, was not near the bar, and did not get back into the bar.

Call Received: 00:33 Dispatched: 00:35 Arrived: 00:36

Friday, December 27, 2024

My Wife's Bar and Grill-1814 Taylor Avenue-Alarm Panic-Call came in as a panic alarm/silent hold up alarm. Contact was made with an employee who stated a big black SUV last seen eastbound on DeKoven Avenue from Taylor Avenue contained the problem party. Additional information provided by the employee was that there was almost a physical altercation. Responding officers checked the area for the SUV however were unable to locate it and the problem party was gone from the bar. Officers spoke with the employee who advised two male parties had a verbal altercation however it never became physical. When the employee told one of the male parties that he was going to call police he (the involved male party) left. The responding officer checked the bar license as well as the bartender's license. 24-054340

Call Received: 01:18 Dispatched: 01:20 Arrived: 01:25

In addition to the above reported incidents, there may be discussion regarding other recent incidents occurring in or around other licensed premises within the City of Racine or updates from previous reports, as reported by the police department.

Saturday, December 28, 2024

Corner Kick Pub- 1301 Washington Avenue-Unwanted Party-The bar owner called to request two people be removed from the bar. The unwanted parties were described as females wearing white sweatshirts and blue jeans. The owner did not want any issues and reported the females having problems with other people at the bar. At the time of the call things were calm. When the females were asked to leave, they refused. When officers arrived, one female party was identified as being unwanted. When the female was asked to leave, she did so upon request. The officer checked the bar license and observed it was valid.

24-054481

Call Received: 01:21 Dispatched: 01:23 Arrived: 01:25

Cackle Jacks- 3620 Northwestern Avenue-Rescue Run- A named complainant called police to report that a male was passed out in the parking lot. The male was attempting to leave in a vehicle. The male initially passed out inside the bar and then went outside and passed out again. He was seen getting into a Chevy Traverse. His wife advised she was taking him to the hospital. When dispatch asked the complainant for a plate on the vehicle the male was getting into, she said "the people didn't want them to give it out." When officers and rescue arrived on scene both services were refused as the wife reported she was taking the male subject to the hospital.

24-054555

Received: 16:28 Dispatched: 16:30 Arrived: 16:32

In addition to the above reported incidents, there may be discussion regarding other recent incidents occurring in or around other licensed premises within the City of Racine or updates from previous reports, as reported by the police department.