

Rick,

I received a call from a constituent about this alley. Apparently it was up for reconstruction about 3 years ago, and the neighbors requested at that time that it not be done. This woman, whose husband signed the petition for non-paving, called asking about it. I told her that we normally wait 5 years before revisiting in this situation.

She is wondering whether we can put it on the list for reconstruction now. What are your thoughts relative to our normal policy? Thanks!
