

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING
November 14, 2006

DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS

DEPARTMENT: Community Health Programs (CHP)

REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF: October

Highlights:

- Ms. Annette Flores Torres attended the Jane Cremer Foundation presentation on breast cancer for the Hispanic community representing the Wisconsin Well Woman Program on October 1.
- The Youth Connections Legislative Candidates Forum held on October 16, 2006, was attended by 58 people and received front page coverage in Journal Times. It included co-sponsorship with Gang-Crime Diversion, Bray Center Inc, and the American Association of University Women this year.
- Flu immunization clinics have begun. We have only received 950 of the expected 1200 doses of vaccine purchased for adult clients so we have only been immunizing high risk client. We have received only part of the vaccine supplied by the state for children.
- Ms. Thelma Jones was the speaker for the United Nations Day celebration on October 24 in City Hall Council Chambers. She spoke on Infant Mortality and Racine Health Department programs for Maternal Child Health as a part of the UN Day theme of Maternal Health.
