Subject: Communication from the Alderman of the 11th District, requesting a change to ordinance 22-1066 to prohibit the issuance of a public passenger vehicle license to applicants with OWI convictions within the past 5 years.

Recommendation of the February 10, 2015 Public Safety and Licensing Committee: Defer.

Fiscal Note: N/A

Alderman Holding requested this communication to discuss the possibility of having applicants that have OWI's denied administratively from obtaining a license. After discussion of the item, it was suggested that the communication be amended to state 2 or more OWI's in a 5 year period. After lengthy discussion, Alderman Kaprelian Becker moved, Alderman Morgenroth seconded to defer this item until information and statistics could be provided for review by the committee to make an educated recommendation on the communication. Motion carried on a voice vote.
