Ms. Evans,

This office has received a citizen complaint that your establishment is violating city ordinance by allowing strippers on your premises (see attached image, along with a copy of the relevant video clips received). Per the Municipal Code, no person may operate an adult entertainment establishment without a license or on a "Class B" premises. Further, no licensee shall permit the performance of any dancers or performers unless such persons are fully clothed. See sections 6-194, 22-81 and 114-677 of the Municipal Code of the City of Racine.

You are hereby ordered to immediately cease any adult entertainment practices on the licensed premise. Violation of the above sections may result in suspension or revocation of your alcohol beverage license, as well as civil and criminal prosecution against you personally.

Please feel free to contact me with any other questions, thank you.

Sincerely,

s/Nhu H. Arn
Assistant City Attorney
