The Lakota Group - Racine Heritage Preservation Plan RFP

Staff Summary:

Consider the qualifications of and project proposal from The Lakota Group to work with the Landmarks Preservation Commission to prepare the City's Heritage Preservation Plan. The current document titled "Architectural and Historical Survey of the City of Racine" (The Survey) has served as the City's guide in preservation efforts since 1980. Many projects advocated for by The Survey have been undertaken, but others are no longer valid due to shifting development aspirations, changing attitudes towards preservation, shifting economic and demographic factors, and the loss of structures. If Lakota's proposal is accepted, work will begin in September. Through an interactive process involving not only the Commission but also inviting participation from community organizations and the citizens of Racine, a new preservation plan is anticipated to be ready for adoption in the spring of 2018.
