Carl Stewart appeared. He stated the incident in question took place when his bouncer went outside and got into a confrontation with one of the people outside. He had informed the bouncer to stay inside, but the bouncer did not listen to his command. This led to the patron leaving and coming back stating he had a gun, but Mr. Stewart stated he never saw a gun. Mr. Stewart has since terminated his bouncer. The committee members informed Mr. Stewart of the importance of contacting police especially in cases where a gun may be involved.
