LICENSE AND WELFARE COMMITTEE
TAXICAB LICENSE PROCEDURES

1. Pursuant to § 22-1036 of the Racine Municipal Code, the Committee shall accept proposals for new taxicab services to provide taxicab service within the City at the Committee's first meeting of March of each fourth calendar year, commencing with 2006, except as modified due to circumstances described in section 2 of this Procedure.

2. If a license to operate a taxicab service is revoked, or if the licensee ceases or fails to operate pursuant to the license and the license is surrendered or revoked due to such circumstance, the Committee shall request the Purchasing Agent to solicit proposals for taxicab service, and the proposals shall be considered by the Committee upon the report of the Purchasing Agent.

3. Proposals for taxicab service shall be for a term of four years.

4. The number of taxicabs to be awarded provider's licenses under § 22-1046 of the Racine Municipal Code shall be limited to a maximum of 12.
