

Sec. 10-99. Animal feces.

- (a) It shall be unlawful to leave animal feces on public or private property except as provided in subsection (c).
- (b) It shall be unlawful for any person to cause or permit a dog or cat to be on property, public or private, not owned or possessed by such person unless such person has in his immediate possession an appropriate device for scooping feces and an appropriate depository for the transmission of feces to a receptacle located upon property owned or possessed by such person. This section shall not apply to a person who is visually or physically handicapped.
- (c) Animal feces accumulations may remain on the owner's property for 24 hours, after which they must be collected, properly stored and disposed of as solid waste as provided in section 78-46 or by flushing down a toilet. Animal feces shall not be disposed of in storm sewers.
