

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETING
January 8, 2008

DEPARTMENTAL REPORTS

DEPARTMENT: Community Health Programs (CHP)

REPORT FOR THE MONTH OF: December 2007

Highlights:

- Marcia Rottino, PHN and Annette McLean, Interpreter, participated in the Blessing Day at the Fellowship of Christian Believers on Saturday December 15. They provided information on healthcare programs available in the Racine community to those persons who were participating in the food basket/Christmas giveaway at this inner city church.
- Jeff Schmidt provided information on sexually transmitted infections to a health class at the Racine Youthful Offender Correctional Facility on December 20.
- All staff participated in annual Bloodborne Pathogen training and Respiratory Fit Testing provided in our department by Michele Breheim.
- Diane Lange presented information on puberty, healthy life style choices, media awareness and pregnancy prevention to a class of 18 girls in health class at San Juan Diego Middle School on December 13.
- Youth Connections had a “Call to Action” at United Way on December 18. This community outreach program had a speaker from the United Way of Milwaukee who spoke about the strategies used in Milwaukee to address teen pregnancy. The group provided input to assist Youth Connections in planning for 2008. Diane Lange, Debbie Williams and Kathy Aukland were involved in the planning for the breakfast and meeting.
- WIC Coordinator, Heidi Bennett, did WIC site visits to the One Stop Liquor and Food Mart on December 12 and 19 and to the Taylor Mart on December 26 for compliance checks.
- The Public Health Nurses recorded a holiday greeting for CAR 25 which included PHN Melinda Thompson’s infant daughter, Meliyah. The message encouraged all parents to put their babies “Back to Sleep.”
