Mr. Mayfield appeared and informed the committee members of his plans for the business. He stated he would be receiving donated items and would be offering these items for sale at $1 and $2 dollars. He stated he had changed his original plans after receiving all the information as to what would be required. Alderman Weidner spoke in favor of a Secondhand License, but was totally against a Pawnbroker license. She stated she was very disappointed that Mr. Mayfield has not done some of the work he had informed her he was going to do. After further discussion and an opinion from the City Attorney, it was determined Mr. Mayfield would not require a license for the type of business he has indicated he will be operating.
