The Sports Pub on Washington- 1301 Washington Ave- Fight- An officer was providing extra attention to the area when they observed people running from the tavern saying something about a fight. The officer then heard what sounded like chairs being thrown within the tavern. When officers entered the tavern they observed a patron using what appeared to be OC spray on another patron. The officers stated they were also sprayed with the OC spray during the altercation inside the tavern. In addition the patron that was sprayed appeared to be covered in blood as they were being taken out of the tavern by other patrons. Officers were unable to locate the patron covered in blood due to the chaotic scene. Once the scene was under control officers spoke with the bartender who stated they believe the altercation may have started in the bathroom but was unsure. Officers attempted to speak with other patrons around the tavern but none of them wished to speak with officers. The tavern then closed for the night.
