

Proclamation

CITY OF RACINE, WISCONSIN

WHEREAS, in 2026, the National Women’s History Alliance (NWHHA) has selected the theme “Leading the Change: Women Shaping a Sustainable Future,” recognizing the vital role women play in building a more just, resilient, and sustainable world; and

WHEREAS, this theme highlights women’s leadership in confronting global challenges—including climate change, economic inequality, healthcare disparities, and social justice—while advancing solutions that strengthen communities and improve quality of life; and

WHEREAS, the theme also broadens the understanding of sustainability beyond environmental stewardship to include financial stability, community resilience, leadership succession, and intergenerational equity; and

WHEREAS, women of every race, class, and ethnic background have made historic and enduring contributions to the growth, progress, and strength of our Nation in both recorded and unrecorded ways; and

WHEREAS, the City of Racine proudly honors the stories, achievements, and leadership of women in our community, throughout Wisconsin, and across the Nation, whose efforts continue to inspire and uplift future generations.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Cory Mason, Mayor of the City of Racine, do hereby proclaim March 2026 as Women’s History Month in the City of Racine and encourage all residents to celebrate and reflect upon the women whose vision, courage, and dedication have shaped our shared history and continue to guide our collective future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Racine to be affixed.

Accomplished at the City Hall
this 26th day of February 2026.
