Staff Summary:

A series of stakeholder listening sessions has been conducted; stakeholder interviews of selected department heads have been completed; site and neighborhood visits have been made; and the first Community Workshop was held. Responses are also being recorded from the on-line community survey. With all the information which has been gathered to date, The Lakota Group is prepared to present to the Commission an executive summary of the draft "State of the City" report. The Commission will also discuss the upcoming Community Workshop #2, and other plan related matters.
