Duo Bar and Grill - 1120 Mound Ave - Fight- Officers were in the area when they observed a large amount of people coming from the front entrance of the tavern yelling and appeared to be fighting. Officers were unable to locate the problem parties due to the large crowd outside the bar, which forced officers to deal with them and not the parties' involved in the fight. Officers made contact with an employee who stated a fight occurred inside the bar and the problem parties were pushed outside. Officers stayed on scene until the outside crowd began to disperse. Officers did check inside the bar and did not find any problems.

Call Received: 00:30 Finished: 00:58

The Fifteen Eighteen -1518 Washington Ave- A Sergeant self-initiated a call for service to provide extra attention to the business. The Sergeant noted music could be heard coming from the tavern and approximately 2 dozen cars were still in the lot. It should be noted three people did attempt to enter the tavern but the door to the tavern was never opened and the parties left the area.
