OUTSIDE RACINE:

MEDIA INTERVIEW:

- None

PRESENTATION/COMMUNITY EVENTS:

- None

Investigations Conducted:

- Complainant is a disabled black male with mobility issues. The property owner has accused him of dealing drugs and being too loud. CP states this is from him limping and using his cane. Staff assisted CP to write a letter of reasonable accommodation and instructed CP to get a new cane tip to cut down on the noise. The property owner is no longer calling the CP daily.
- Complainant is a married, white female with two grandchildren living in her unit. One grandchild had police involvement and a conflict with the neighbor. The property owner wanted to call a meeting, with the neighbor at the complainant house to deal with the issue. CP did not feel comfortable in that situation and wanted to meet elsewhere. Staff advised the CP to reach out directly to the property owner and explain that her grandson is undergoing treatment for his disability and she will work with the property owner to settle the situation. The property owner agreed and a meeting is scheduled for early April.
- Complaint is a single, black female with a disability. CP lives in a HUD subsidized senior building and has her children and grandchildren over regularly to provide caregiving. The property manager wrote a written complaint that the CP had an unauthorized guest living in the unit. Staff helped the CP draft a letter of accommodation to allow family to be caregivers, until a formal arrangement with caregiver is made. The management did not respond in the requested time, the CP decided to file a HUD complaint on her own.

FILED (Alleged) COMPLAINT (S) w/HUD or ERD:

- None.

COMPLAINT UPDATE:

- Complainant is a single, black male, with a disability. CP has a condition that requires a first floor unit. The CP has a criminal history and is worried it will get in the way. Staff explained the HUD guidance on using criminal history for HUD Subsidized Properties and helped the CP understand how to communicate his past if asked. CP called and let staff know he will be moving in early April to a subsidized senior building.
