

Proclamation

CITY OF RACINE, WISCONSIN

Whereas: Public Service Recognition Week has been celebrated the first week of May since 1985 to honor the people who serve as federal, state, county, and local government employees; and

Whereas: each day dedicated City of Racine employees – at all levels and in every department – work to keep our city operating by ensuring proper management of vital municipal services with efficiency and integrity to meet the demands and needs of our community; and

Whereas: often working under extremely difficult circumstances, many of our public servants also put themselves at risk including police officers, firefighters, transportation workers, safety inspectors, healthcare professionals, and others; and

Whereas: our employees work day in and day out – often without recognition – to continuously provide diverse and invaluable essential services demanded by residents to support and improve life in our community; and

Whereas: City of Racine employees are the unsung heroes that protect and enhance the quality of life for our residents, businesses, and visitors.

Now Therefore: I, Cory Mason, the Mayor of Racine, Wisconsin, do hereby recognize and proclaim the week of May 7 through 14, 2023

Public Service Recognition Week

and encourage all residents to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of the hardworking and deserving City of Racine employees.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have here unto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Racine to be affixed.

Accomplished at the City Hall
this 1st day of May, 2023.

Mayor