December 6, 2017	"Social Media for Government Agencies" Webinar	Overview of how to use social media effectively and appropriately in a government setting	Three Health Department personnel participated in a webinar focused on using social media as a government agency. Basic principles of social media use, examples of appropriate social media policies, and best practices for government use of social media were all covered. This was a worthwhile experience in terms of bettering the department's use of social media platforms.
