

CITY OF RACINE BOARD OF HEALTH
APRIL 10, 2018

DEPARTMENT: Laboratory Division

PREPARED BY: Julie Kinzelman, PhD, MT (ASCP) – Laboratory Director

MONTH: March 2018

Highlights

Date	Meeting	Purpose	Outcome
March 1, 2018	WI Coastal Beaches Working Group	Steering Committee Meeting	Discuss current coastal hazard projects, receive DNR updates and debrief on 2017 annual conference.
March 6, 2018	UWM School of Freshwater Sciences	Internship Fair	Meet with potential summer internship applicants.
March 6, 2018	American Asso. of University Women	Invited Speaker	Keynote speaker for monthly meeting. Spoke about engaging women in applied science projects for the Racine Public Health Dept.
March 7, 2018	FoxConn	Water Diversion Public Meeting	Attend public meeting to gain information on proposed diversion of Great Lakes water for FoxConn project.
March 8, 2018	Oak Creek Watershed Restoration Plan (WRP) Public Meeting	Watershed Plan Update	Received information from SEWRPC and the WDNR about ongoing data collection activities related to the Oak Creek WRP. Answered questions from the public.
March 17, 2018	Ecofest	Provide Information to the Public	Provided information to the public on recycling, bulky waste removal, lead and other City of Racine green initiatives.
March 19, 2018	Water Street Redevelopment	Project Update	Received information on status of Root River redevelopment adjacent to Water Street.
March 21 – 24, 2018	WI Dept. of Agriculture, Trade & Consumer Protection	Proficiency Testing	Staff participated in annual mandatory blind sample dairy proficiency testing.
March 22, 2018	Racine Unified School District	Field Trip Planning	Met with science teacher from J.I. Case High School to plan April field trip to S. Myers Park.
March 28, 2018	21 st Century Prep School	Science Fair	Judge entrepreneurial / science fair; theme was water resource sustainability.
March 28, 2018	SE WI Watershed Trust (SWWT) Science Advisory Group	Quarterly Meeting	Heard presentations on prevalence of Polycyclic Aromatic Hydrocarbons (PAHs) in SE WI waters.